Dear Thorsten,

It is amazing to see how the Seven Stars and Stripes review in two of our hotels, the Grand Palace Hotel in Riga, Latvia and the Schlossle Hotel in Tallinn, Estonia have created additional awareness of these hotels.

Some people have found us by reading the reviews in the Internet, some of our hotel guests are intrigued by the plaques we display, want to know more about it and recommend us to their friends and business partners. All of these have brought additional business to us and it also has tremendous value when interacting with the media.

With best regards,

Bernhard L. Loew
